KETCHER MUST FIGHT ON OCTOBER 13 OR FORFEIT $5,000.
Johnson Refuses to Grant a Postponement, the Request for Which Came Speculation—Negro Says Jeff Must Get Busy—Detroiters Under a Strain

When Stanley Ketchel and his manager, Willis Britt, arrived in Frisco Thursday night they lost no time in asking Promoter Coffroth to postpone the date of the fight with Jack Johnson to October 23. Just why this delay was sought nobody seems to know unless there is something in the matter with Ketchel's hand, which he disabled in the recent bout with Papke. But at any rate Promoter Coffroth, after a consultation with Johnson, informed Ketchel and Britt that the fight must take place on October 13 or Ketchel would forfeit a $5,000 forfeit, which Coffroth holds. So Ketchel will have to meet Johnson on the original date or lose the above sum, together with the $12,000 he has paid for his championship. Johnson is very decided in regard to this matter. He says he has acted in good faith with Ketchel and Britt and will be in the ring on the appointed day ready to fight. The negro declares that this match was made last spring Ketchel has had plenty of time to prepare for it and is making an unreasonable demand for a postponement.

Jockey Dugan, who has been frequently accused of rough riding, received a dose of his own medicine at Gravesend yesterday, where the races were run in rain and sloppy mud. Dugan had the mount on R. L. Thomas's Flying Squirrel in the fifth event, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs. The Cearson colt, who was the favorite, was ridden by Dr. Holberg. Dugan was thrown into the fence on the Flying Squirrel, and the race was decided. Dugan's protest of foul was not accepted.
